You may have correctly factored the numerators and denominators, regrouped common factors in the same fraction, and reduced that fraction to 1. However, then you may have incorrectly distributed the 10 in the final step, $10(x - 3)$.