You may have used the equation for direct variation. An inverse variation equation is $y = \dfrac{k}{x}$ or $k = xy$. Substitute the given values in for x and y, and then solve for k.