You may have substituted correctly into a joint variation equation, but then reversed the numbers when dividing and solving. Using the equation $32 = k(20)(2)$, multiply to find $32 = k(40)$. Divide to solve for k.