

You correctly subtracted the numerators, but then you canceled the denominators. When you do subtraction of fractions that have the same denominator, keep the denominator and just subtract the numerators. Also, do not forget to state the difference in simplest terms.