

The conjugate of a binomial that includes radicals is found by changing the sign of the second term to its opposite. In this case, -3 was changed to 3 .