

You may have substituted $x = -1$ into the equation, got 8 under the radical, and forgot to take the square root. The left side would actually be equal to the square root of 8, not 8, so it is not a solution of this equation. The correct answer is $\sqrt{2x + 6} = 2$.