

A quadratic equation will have two real solutions if the discriminant is positive. Remember that the discriminant is the number  $b^2 - 4ac$ , and that the solutions to a quadratic equation are given by the formula:

$$x = \frac{-b \pm \sqrt{b^2 - 4ac}}{2a}$$