

A quadratic equation will always have either two real, one real, or two complex (nonreal) solutions. Remember that the discriminant is the number $b^2 - 4ac$, and that the solutions to a quadratic equation are given by the formula: $x = \frac{-b \pm \sqrt{b^2 - 4ac}}{2a}$