

It appears that you simply read the three constants from left to right. Standard form of a quadratic equation is  $ax^2 + bx + c = 0$ . You must rewrite the equation so that one side is 0. Then reorder the terms to match this form and find  $a$ ,  $b$ , and  $c$ .