

It appears that while combining like terms, you also added the exponents. Remember that when you combine like terms, you need only add the coefficients; the variable factor remains the same. The correct answer is $-2x^2 + 3x - 9$.