

When you created your table to see if the resulting ordered pairs matched the graph, you may not have noticed that this function contains the term $-3x$, not $3x$. The graph of $f(x) = -3x - 3$ would contain the points $(-1, 0)$ and $(1, -6)$, which are not on the given graph. The correct answer is $f(x) = 3x - 3$.