

Correct. The value under the radical in a square root function cannot be less than 0. So the domain is all x -values for which the radicand is not negative. That means $3x - 6 \geq 0$. So $3x \geq 6$, and therefore $x \geq 2$. The domain is $x \geq 2$.