

You correctly identified the domain of the function. However, you may not have graphed the function, or you missed that the square root of the function is multiplied by a negative number. Because $\sqrt{x-3} \geq 0$, it follows that $-\sqrt{x-3} \leq 0$. Use this fact to find the range.