

You may have thought that adding two functions means to combine all terms of both functions together. The notation should be interpreted as follows:

$$(f+g)(x) = f(x) + g(x) = (6x) + (3x + 3)$$

Now combine like terms.