

Incorrect. If the second bar above a student's name is higher than the first bar, the student's score went up. For these students, find the height of the second bar and subtract the height of the first bar. The correct answer is 15.