

In 2012, the number of deer in a local park is 120, but this number is decreasing each year by a constant percent. The number of deer in the park  $t$  years after 2012 can be found using the formula  $d = 120(0.99)^t$ . About how many deer will be left in the park after 10 years?