

How long will it take, to the nearest whole year, for money to triple if it is invested at 4% interest compounded quarterly? Use the formula $A = P\left(1 + \frac{r}{m}\right)^{mt}$ to find the answer.

It will take _____ years for money to triple when invested at 4% interest compounded quarterly.