

A biologist studying timber rattlesnakes records the following lengths, in inches, of some adult snakes: 36, 42, 38, 36, 39, and 37.

Match each measure of center on the left to the corresponding value for this set, in inches, on the right. Some values on the right will not be used.