

Correct. The left and right ends of the whiskers on the plot are at 4 and 22. These are the least and greatest values in the data set. The difference between these values is the range. Because $22 - 4 = 18$, the range is 18.