How high each point is above the year shows how many students were in a class, according to the numbers on the vertical axis. Between these two years, the class size went from 27 to 34. This means that the size increased by 7. This is the greatest increase.