Incorrect. To find the set of data from a stem and leaf plot, combine the stem with each of its leaves; the stem will be the tens digit and the leaf will be the ones digit. The shortest height can be found by combining the smaller stem and the smallest leaf.