

Incorrect. Complementary angles are two angles whose measurements add to 90° , while supplementary angles have measurements that add to 180° .