

Because the B section is about one-fourth of the circle graph, one-fourth of the 60 students would be in this category. This list correctly shows 15 students next to B. Sections A and F combined are smaller than B, so there should be far fewer than 15 students who got an A or F. This list shows 3 students received an A and 2 received an F. This is the only list that correctly shows the numbers.