

The numbers in this list match the approximate percentages. However, they are supposed to be the actual number of students in each category. Remember that there are a total of 60 students, not 100.