You may have chosen this set of numbers because the numbers fall within the whiskers and box of the plot, but not on the vertical lines themselves. However, the least and greatest values in this data set are 33 and 44. These numbers do not match the left and right ends of the whiskers of the plot, so this cannot be the data set represented.