Correct. The left and right ends of the whiskers on the plot are at 11 and 27. These are the least and greatest values in the data set. The difference between these values is the range. Because $27 - 11 = 16$, the range is 16.