The number of outcomes in the sample space equals the number of snack pieces:

$$5 + 4 + 5 + 1 = 15$$

The number of outcomes for the event of pulling a pretzel from the bag is 5. So $\frac{5}{15}$, or $\frac{1}{3}$, is the probability of pulling a pretzel from the bag.