

At the frozen yogurt shop, there is a sale each afternoon. A customer has a choice of six flavors and four different toppings. Use the Fundamental Counting Principle to determine how many combinations a customer can create.

A customer can possibly create _____ different combinations.