

You may have considered only the outcomes of rolling a sum less than 10 when the number on the first die is less than or equal to the number on the second die. For example, you could have counted the outcome (1, 4) but not (4, 1), which is a distinct possibility. The correct answer is $\frac{5}{6}$.