

Incorrect. Similar triangles have the same shape (the same angles), but may have different sizes. Congruent triangles have both the same size and shape.