

Incorrect. A line segment is any piece that connects two labeled points. Even if there are arrows beyond the points indicating a line or a ray, the piece between the two labeled points is called a line segment. The correct answer is 4.