

A triangular park's measurements are shown in the drawing below.

Each row of the chart shows one given measurement in inches for a possible scale drawing of the park. Use the one given measurement to find the two missing measurements.