

Mary drove 60 miles east and then 20 miles north. How many miles would Mary have driven if she could have gone directly from her starting point to her ending point? (Use a calculator to find the square root, and round the answer to the nearest tenth.)

She would have driven _____ miles.