

Incorrect. The patio can be separated into a trapezoid and a parallelogram. Find the area of each region. Add the areas of the regions to find the area of the entire patio. Multiply the area by 2 to find the cost of the tiles.