

Incorrect. The countertop can be separated into a trapezoid on the left and a rectangle on the right. Find the area of each region. Add the areas of the regions to find the area of the entire countertop. Multiply the area by 4 to find the cost of the granite.