

Perhaps you were looking at  $\angle GDF$ , which is a straight angle, and saw that these two angles were parts of it. However, they are not all of it. Supplementary angles are two angles whose measurements add up to  $180^\circ$ , or that together make an entire straight angle.