

Incorrect. Find the volume of the cube and subtract the volume of the pyramid from it.

The volume of a cube is given by $V = a^3$ and the volume of a pyramid is given by $V = \frac{1}{3}lwh$. Because the height of the pyramid is the same height as the cube, you need to substitute the value 6 for all variables in the formulas.