

The notches in the drawing indicate that the two triangles have the same side lengths. The angle markings also indicate that their angle measures are the same. Review the definitions of similar and congruent.