Congruent triangles must be the same size and shape. These two triangles have the same shape, but $\triangle DEF$ has a larger size, so the triangles are not congruent. The correct answer is $\triangle ABC \sim \triangle DEF$ because $\dfrac{4}{6} = \dfrac{5}{7.5} = \dfrac{6}{9}$.