

Use completing the square to solve the equation $x^2 + 16x = -44$. First determine the number you must add to both sides of the equation.