

The side opposite an angle is the side that does not form part of the angle.